

Volunteering with the Sisters of Social Service

Get involved with SSS ministries in Los Angeles and San Diego!

Projects with Active Seniors/Elders, Encino

The Villa Retirement Community is home to 13 Sisters of Social Service who have spent their lives in the social work field, working with those on the margins of our world. They have varying interests including visual art, gardening, technology, photography, current events, and of course a rich and diverse spiritual life.

Opportunities: Their interests and needs are as varied as the Sisters: repotting plants and gardening, reading the newspaper aloud, helping with correspondence, playing card games and Checkers, and social visits. The Sisters are especially in need of volunteers for help with computer technology and projects. Individuals and group volunteers are welcome.

Contact: Sr. Shaun Marie Wise (818) 285-3352

SSS Archives, Encino

Opportunity: Volunteers needed to help in the SSS Archives with sorting, scanning, compiling, and organizing files and historical documents. Hours are flexible, but a regular commitment is desired. Archive experience required.
